

LONDON MARKET GUIDE TIPS & TRICKS

1. PLAN

With so many options to choose from select your neighborhood, market and even food choices beforehand to make sure you make the most out of market experience. Many markets are only open Saturday or Sunday so plan accordingly so you dont miss out!

2. WANDER

Grab a coffee or a mulled cider and wander the many booths and vendors before diving into the first thing you see -- as tempting as it can be! With so many options and varieties of food to choose from you may see something the second walk through and regret filling up on six donuts!

3. WHEN & WHERE

Back to planning! Knowing when and where the best markets are open is half the battle in your London market experience. Many markets are only open on certain days and hours. For large, popular markets like Borough Market plan on going during off-peak hours to beat the crowds and still get the full market experience!

MOST MARKETS HAVE SOME FOR OF SOCIAL MEDIA OR WEBSITE SO GET TO STALKING! FIND OUT WHEN EACH MARKET IS OPEN AND WHAT VENDORS WILL BE THERE AND NEVER HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT MISSING WHAT THE LONDON MARKET SCENE HAS TO OFFER!

WHERE TO GO

Broadway Market

29 Tooting High Street Broadway Market, London SW17
+44 20 8672 6613

Borough Market

London SE1 1TL
+44 20 7407 1002

Camden Lock Market

1St Floor,, London NW1 8AF
Phone: 020 3763 9999

Portobello Market

Notting Hill Gate Station

Columbia Road Flower Market

3 Ezra St, Tower Hamlets, London E2 7RG
+44 20 7739 1223

London MARKET GUIDE

LONDON IS HOME TO OVER 270 DIFFERENT NATIONALITIES WITH ETHNIC CUSINE REFLECTING ALMOST ALL OF THEM. WITH AS MANY MARKETS TO MATCH THE NATIONALITIES YOU ARE SURE TO FIND A BITE TO EAT THAT

DON'T KNOW WHERE TO START?
TAKE A LOOK INSIDE TO FIND
SOME OF THE BEST MAR-KETS IN SOME OF LONDON'S
COOLEST NEIGHBORHOODS!

PORTOBELLO MARKET

Take in famous Notting Hill not only for its famous movie moments but for the flea markets that line the streets. Everything from vintage fashion, home goods, brick a brack and more. Stop into one of the nearby cafes to relax after taking on the bustling crowds.

BROADWAY MARKET

take some time and get out of bustling central London and spend the morning wandering Broadway Market. With craft coffee and homemade dumplings a plenty. You'll run out of time trying to enjoy all of the amazing vendors with local East Londoners

CAMDEN LOCK MARKET

Edgy and a little bit grungy head North to experience streets lined with booths of clothing, antiques, nicnacs and all the ethnic food you can eat. Walk along the canal to burn off all of that food or take the short walk to the London Zoo right in Regents Park

COLUMBIA ROAD FLOWER MARKET

Follow the many Londoners with giant bundles of flowers and you'll find Columbia Road Flower Market taking over every inch of Columbia Road. Every kind of flower or plant you can imagine are at your fingertips with some only costing you a fiver! What could be better?

BOROUGH MARKET

located right next to scenic Tower Bridge, Borough market is a foodies paradise. From fresh produce to baked treats and ready to eat lunches, Borough market has everything you need to get you through a long day of siteseeing!

